

Instructions: Repeat these sentences or read them aloud. Pay extra attention to the colored letters. Pause slightly for words that start with these letters.

Have someone listen to you and rate your productions. They should give you their score after each sentence. Do not try the same sentence again until the next session. Aim for 5 sessions a day.

Please rate these sentences on a scale of 1 - 3.

3 = Perfect

2 = One slurred letter

1 = Two or more slurred letters

							Send me soup for supper
							I saw the same ship yesterday
							She wasn't sorry that he slipped
							Sunday should be pretty sunny
							For the first time, I feel sad
							The fire sprang from the basement
							Flat futons are fairly soft
							Videos are very fun for me
							Sunshine isn't safe on my skin
							I chose to chow down on cheese
							Children should play where it is safe
							Friends sound funny when they snicker
							The sheets were very soft
							Slippers feel fine on my feet
							I have a passion for flute sonatas
							It's chilly outside in the spring
							Ships with supplies sank fast
							Very few soups have fennel in them
							It's fair to assume she isn't sorry
							Ketchup is sweeter than chicken